All rooms should be guaranteed with a deposit equivalent to two nights' room and tax. Cancellation of a room, entitles the guest to a refund of one night's room and tax. If the guest cancels the room prior to 72 hours before arrival, one night is refundable to the guest and one night is credited to the NAACP master acct. If the guest cancels, within 72 hours, no refund is due.

*Registration for the 108th Annual Convention will open in April 2017. For the first time, the NAACP will feature online registration as its primary method of registration for all categories. All units are encouraged to register online rather than via the traditional method. Due to the new process units are asked to register as soon as possible, after registration opens.
